*“Beyond all these things put on love,
which is the perfect bond of unity.”
(Colossians 3:14)*

Sean & Lillian had planned long and hard for their wedding day. Finally the day came and it was a beautiful day. The weather was sunny and the service went well. But what made it especially beautiful was seeing 2 people committing themselves to a life of love and unity. (not a given in Quebec).

In many ways this was a very special day for Kim & I as we had talked often with this couple over the past 3-4 months. They had enormous financial and personal obstacles to overcome, yet we kept encouraging them to trust God for all of their needs. God found Sean a job at just the right time. Lillian's prayer to have her dad walk her down the aisle was also answered. Together with them we had prayed specifically for these 2 requests ... they came to realize that God is still in the business of answering prayers!

- ⇒ Pray that Lillian will find a full-time job.
- ⇒ Pray that their oldest son would find an acceptable school to attend come September.
- ⇒ Pray that right from the start that God will be at the centre of their marriage.

On a personal Kim & I are so pleased that Eric has now finished high school and will attend Vanier College in August! Nicholas had a successful year too and won school 4 awards!

- ⇒ Pray for jobs for both boys.
- ⇒ Pray for Eric as he picks up a needed class this summer for entrance to Vanier College.
- ⇒ Pray for Kim and I as we speak 4 Sundays' in a row at 3 different churches. May we encourage those who are tired & discouraged through God's Word & our love.
- ⇒ Pray that God will open the door for genuine conversations with those whom we invite to our home to watch World Cup Soccer games.

“If I have not charity, if love does flow in me, I am nothing! Jesus reduce me to nothing ... so that I can become someone useful in your world.”
